Letter to our Volunteers

Dear Volunteer,

As we jumpstart the planning and implementation for our 2013 Oyotunji African Village Festival Calendar, we want to thank you for rendering your time, energy and resources to the 2012 festivals and work projects. Our history teaches us that all community based movements are as effective as the collective efforts of those who sacrifice for the betterment of the whole. The collective works of our volunteers keep our festival season afloat and for this we say thank you!

The Kingdom of Oyotunji African Village is taking a new direction; one that will incorporate a more inclusive approach to the interaction with the Diaspora and our global Pan-African community. As such, the OAV repositioning mantra is LIVING CULTURE•FEEDING COMMUNITY•CELEBRATING TRADITION.

We are excited about our multi-layered 2013 Festival Schedule. New to each Festival is the Friday evening Opening Ceremony, Meet & Greet and Cultural Documentary Film Series. Additionally, every Saturday between 1pm-3pm will be a Lunch & Lecture Series, which will provide a traditional West African lunch to Festival attendees, as well as, provide an element of education, via lecture, with topics focused on the patron Deity of each particular Festival.

To coordinate the on the ground support for the 2013 OAV Festivals , we are now wanting to contact and organize our volunteers.

Available Festival Committees are listed below. Please respond with the areas of interest with which you would like to volunteer.

As we move forward in our new direction, Oyotunji will soon be implementing the “Done-In-A-Day” projects, as well as the “Ise Aiye” work weekends, which will provide a multitude of trainings, workshops, hands-on projects, and tools to learn new skills and enhance old ones in various areas of trade. Look for more information regarding these and other upcoming programs on our new website at oyotunji.org.

Attached you will find a Festival Schedule so that you may have an idea of when you would like to volunteer. Please include your tentative dates of availability in your response to this letter.

Again thank you for signing up to become a Volunteer for the 2013 Oyotunji African Village Festival Season.

We look forward to working with you soon!
